

U.S. District Court
District of Rhode Island

Petition for Admission Pursuant to LR Gen 202(a)(2)(B)

Instructions

An applicant who is a member in good standing of the bar of any other United States District Court may be admitted to the bar of this Court without taking the course of instruction on federal practice, provided the person can

- a.) establish to the satisfaction of this Court that he has at least five (5) years of experience in practicing before federal courts; and
- b.) has read and has a knowledge of the local rules of this Court.

If the applicant meets the above requirements, the following items shall be filed with the Clerk of Court:

- An application form duly completed. The application form can be obtained from the Clerk's Office - (401) 752-7200, or can be downloaded from our website. The applicant may supplement the information he provides in the application form as to his experience in practice before the federal courts:
- A current Certificate of Good Standing from the Supreme Court of the State of Rhode Island; and
- A current Certificate of Good Standing from the U.S. District Court where the applicant is a member.
